Special issue «Studies in Educational Evaluation» – Accountability systems and their effects on school processes and student learning (Erscheinungsdatum: Sommer 2011)

Guest Editor:

Prof. Dr. Katharina Maag Merki
University of Zurich, Institute of Education
Freiestrasse 36
8032 Zürich, Switzerland
Tel: ++41 44 634 27 80
Fax: ++41 44 634 28 88
kmaag@ife.uzh.ch

1. Katharina Maag Merki: Guest Editorial

2. Esther Dominique Klein, Isabell van Ackeren, University of Duisburg-Essen:
State-wide Exit Examinations in European OECD-states: A Review of Different High School Exit Examination Procedures

3. Katharina Maag Merki, Daniela Jäger:
The Effects of the Implementation of State-wide Exit Exams on Self-regulated Learning of the Students

4. Svenja Mareike Kuehn, University of Duisburg-Essen:
The Impact of Different Patterns of Exit Examinations on the Arrangement of Tasks

5. Nadja Pfuhl, Miriam Gebauer, Wilfried Bos, University of Dortmund:
Task Analysis With Item Response Models of Exit Examinations in Mathematics in an International Comparison

6. Marko Neumann, Ulrich Trautwein, Gabriel Nagy & Oliver Lüdtke, Max Planck Institute for Human Development, University of Tübingen:
Do Central Exit Examinations Lead to Greater Comparability? A Study on Abitur Students in Germany

7. Sandy Taut, Centro de Medición MIDE UC, Santiago, Chile:
Effects and Uses of a National Teacher Performance Assessment at School Level

8. Melanie.C.M. Ehren, University of Twente:
Strategic Responses of Schools to Multiple Measures in the Dutch Accountability System

9. Herbert Altrichter, Johann Bacher, Martina Beham, Gertrud Nagy and Daniela Wetzelhütter, Johannes Kepler Universität Linz:
The Effects of a Free School Choice Policy On Parent’s Perception of Schools and School Choice Behaviour