CONTENTS

Articles

1  ‘A new discovery’ of Charles Hoole: method and practice in seventeenth-century English education
Jamie Gianoutsos

19  How did teachers make a living? The teacher occupation, livelihood diversification and the rise of mass schooling in nineteenth-century Sweden
Johannes Westberg

41  Aesthetic modernisation and international comparisons: learning about drawing instruction at the Paris Exposition Universelle of 1900
Joakim Landahl

60  Christianity and the character education movement 1897–1914
James Arthur

77  ‘And all our classes turned into a flower garden again’ – science education in Soviet schools in the 1920s and 1930s: the case of biology from Darwinism to Lysenkoism
Dorena Caroli

Sources and interpretations

99  ‘Man sorting books’: historical research in an archive of university photographs
Frances Kelly

118  Picturing progressive texts: images of ‘democratic schooling’ in the work of John and Evelyn Dewey and contemporaries
Peter Cunningham

142  Book Reviews