Disability & Society
Volume 34  Numbers 5–6  June–July 2019

CONTENTS

Volume 34  Number 5  June 2019

Articles

683 Disabled men with muscular dystrophy negotiate gender
David Abbott, John Carpenter, Barbara E. Gibson, Jon Hastie, Marcus Jeppson and Brett Smith

704 'Risky' representation: the portrayal of women with mobility impairment in twenty-first-century advertising
Ella Houston

726 'Trial by fire': forms of impairment disclosure and implications for disability identity
Heather D. Evans

747 Albinism, spiritual and cultural practices, and implications for health, healthcare, and human rights: a scoping review
Sheryl Reimer-Kirkham, Barbara Astle, Iponwosa Ero, Kristi Panchuk and Duncan Dixon

775 Changing the narrative: the role of frontline worker attitudes and beliefs in shaping dementia-friendly services in England
Sarah Alden, Andrea Wigfield, Erika Kispeter and Vinal Karania

797 Questioning the professionalization of recovery: a collaborative exploration of a recovery process
Clara De Ruyscher, Peter Tomlinson, Stijn Vanheule and Stijn Vandeveldt

819 Voting barriers and solutions: the experiences of people with disabilities during the Dutch national election in 2017
Suzanne G.M. van Hees, Hennie R. Boeije and Iris de Putter

Current Issues

837 I am who I need to be: reflections on parental identity development from a father of a child with disabilities
Shaileen Singh

842 'Me too!': individual empowerment of disabled women in the #MeToo movement in China
Zhongxuan Lin and Liu Yang

848 Book Reviews

858 Guidelines for the BreakThrough Scholars section of the journal

859 Guidelines for current issues

860 Announcement of doctoral theses
Articles

863 Constructing ‘disability’ in Myanmar: teachers, community stakeholders, and the complexity of disability models
Hannah Ware and Matthew J. Schuelka

885 Interpretative accounts of work capacity assessment policy for young adults with disabilities
Lisa Stafford, Greg Marston, Amanda Beatson, Marianella Chamorro-Koc and Judy Drennan

904 Ambivalent subjectivities: experiences of mothers with disabilities in Russia
Alfiya Battalova

926 Communal invalidation of young adults with co-occurring substance abuse and mental health issues
Randi Semb, Aksel Tjora and Marit Borg

945 Voices of youths on engagement in community life: a theoretical framework of belonging
Rebecca Renwick, Denise DuBois, Jasmine Cowen, Debra Cameron, Ann Fudge Schormans and Natalie Rose

972 Provocations for Critical Disability Studies
Dan Goodley, Rebecca Lawthom, Kirsty Liddiard and Katherine Runswick-Cole

Current Issues

998 From decentralization to integration: the development of social welfare services for disabled veterans in China
Yu Cao, Ke Meng, Zhang Chen, Peijie Wang, Shuoyan Li and Na Tang

1004 Ten years of the CRPD’s adoption in China: challenges and opportunities
Shixin Huang

Book Reviews

1020 Guidelines for the BreakThrough Scholars section of the journal

1021 Guidelines for current issues

1022 Announcement of doctoral theses